The claim is as follows: "the ratio of a person's height to the height of his/her navel is roughly the golden ratio. We are not told why this is significant; the navel is a scar of no great importance in an adult human being" (Markowski 15). This is another instance of what Markowski calls the "Pyramidology Fallacy" (15)--sure, the golden ratio may be present in something, but that does not necessarily imply that it is significant.
